Eat cake and help young mum
with cancer

If you are a keen baker of cakes or just someone who likes eating them, this is for you! You'll also be helping a young South Auckland mum who is struggling financially to meet the cost of cancer treatment (so all of the cakes you eat will have zero guilt points because you're really fundraising). Here's a link to her sad story.

Some of Lauren's friends (along with people who have never met her) are organizing a cake stall next Sat 18 keen on baking for the cake stall or can't come along but want to help in some way please email lisa@powleslandpr.co.nz or text her on 021 890984 and she will organise to collect any goodies.

A limited number of cake boxes are available at the school office for you to use
