CISV Auckland is part of the International organisation CISV, affiliated to UNESCO. It is a non-religious, non-profit organisation whose aim is to help build a more peaceful world when participants build global friendships with others from around the world when staying together in a camp setting.

A weekend camp is being held at the Karanga Campsite, near Swanson on the 16 and 17 October for anyone wishing to find out what a CISV camp is like. There will be an opportunity to talk to leaders and children who have already attended overseas camps at the conclusion of the camp, as well as learn about the opportunities for 2010 and 2011.
